Dear Parents/ Carers,

Re: Coronavirus update – re-opening for Spring term in January 2021

The government announced today that primary schools in Ealing (and most of London) will not open from January 4th due to the very fast spread of the “variant coronavirus” and the extremely high levels of infection.

This means that Beaconsfield Primary WILL NOT open as planned to all pupils on Monday 4th January 2021. The earliest that school will now re-open is Monday 18th January. (This date will be confirmed later).

Children of key-workers and those who are classed as vulnerable are welcome to attend school as usual.

If you believe you are entitled to “key-worker support” attendance we’d ask that you email to emergency@beaconsfield.ealing.sch.uk and state:

- Child’s full name
- Child’s class
- Your key-worker occupation and employer name (and if possible attach your key worker letter)

All other pupils will learn at home via the following platforms:

- Work Packs (These will be available in time-slots for collection from Monday afternoon)
- my.uso.im ‘My Drive’ (Learning tasks and supporting resources, including ‘Busyant’ Maths)
- Busy Things
- Oxford Owl
- First News
- Bedrock Reading (KS2)
- Online blogs (Upper KS2 classes)

- Children will be expected to log in everyday and complete some work. Teachers will monitor attendance/ use of the online learning platforms each day.
- Parents can contact school on admin@beaconsfield.ealing.sch.uk Queries will be monitored daily during the afternoon for a response within 24 hours.

As this announcement was not expected we do not yet have detailed information about school meals for those pupils who usually have “Free School Meals” (FSM). Information will be on the website once this is available.

This is as much as we know right now and we appreciate your continued patience as we deal with this ever-changing situation. We understand that this latest news will have an impact on you and your family. We’ll continue to keep in touch with any updates as the situation develops. Please don’t hesitate to contact school via the admin@beaconsfield.ealing.sch.uk if you have any questions or queries.

Thank you again for your continued support, and we will be in touch with more information when we can.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Dave Woods
