

Mr Dave Woods
Head Teacher

I started my career teaching in Sydney, Australia. In 1998, I emigrated to the UK because I enjoy the weather.

I worked in challenging areas of East London to reach the role of Deputy Head Teacher. I started as Head Teacher at Beaconsfield in 2006.

I thoroughly enjoy my work at school in Southall. We have such a dedicated and vibrant local community and I'm fortunate to have such a great, hard-working staff team.

Outside of school, I enjoy cooking, travel, motor racing and I recently started to improve my photography skills.
